

Celebrating Christmas with some of the finest Indian chefs, restaurateurs and hoteliers.

Sonal Holland, Master of Wine

Master of Wine Sonal Holland's favoured Late Bottled Vintage Port. Christmas is a treat for the senses in London.

My Christmas wish: "That the pandemic ultimately proves to be an unforeseen opportunity for EVERYONE to reinvent themselves into better and stronger versions of themselves."

Favourite Christmas dish: "Sipping a glass of Late Bottled Vintage Port and munching on mince pies as our family sits around a decked-up tree at home on the eve of Christmas, makes me feel all warm and fuzzy."

Best Christmas vacay: "London dazzles like no other city during the Christmas season. Londoners know how to deck the halls, the food & beverage industry pulls out all stops to delight your senses and the shopping malls turn temptress. What's not to love?!"
